

KU PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICE ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

SCOPE OF WORK

The Public Relations Office of the University of Karachi is responsible for ensuring that the KU's relevant information is duly communicated to both internal and external audiences through mainstream and social media. The PR Office is headed by the Deputy Director Public Relations Muhammad Zeeshan Azmat.

MEDIA OUTREACH

The PR Office advises the Vice Chancellor of the University to issue the policy statements on a need basis. It also liaises with authorized faculty members to appear on television for interviews and shows and ensures that their research is shared with print, electronic, and new media to showcase their scholarly accomplishments.

Meanwhile, Muhammad Farooq, the Assistant Public Relations Officer, is responsible for disseminating official communication and press releases to the mainstream and digital media through the official WhatsApp group and email account.

KU EVENTS

KU's Public Relations Office is responsible for organizing corporate events of the University under the chair of the Vice Chancellor. The most notable of these is the annual graduation event.

The PR Office executes communication and marketing activities, such as KU's event, to promote the University's image mainly by highlighting academic programs, extracurricular activities, and research in news items in the media.

MARKETING AND IMAGE BUILDING

KU's Public Relations Office is also responsible for marketing the University's image to both internal and external audiences. Some of these activities include; promoting the University at events including exhibitions, conferences, seminars, workshops, training programs, and other activities.

It also circulates promotional items such as brochures, flyers, calendars, awards, and other souvenirs among the audience through social media.

ONLINE SERVICES

The Public Relations Office provides content management support to the University's official social media platforms/handles. The audience is regularly updated through Facebook and LinkedIn pages, YouTube and WhatsApp channels, and Instagram and Twitter accounts/handles.

We encourage our alumni, students, faculty, researchers, employees, parents, and guardians to follow us on the official social media platforms of the University of Karachi. The links are

Social media engagement aims to share accurate information with the viewers and build a unique online identity. Hafiz Muhammad Abdul Samad Khan is the Social Media Coordinator at the KU PR Office and operates and maintains the social media platforms.

MEDIA RELATIONS

The PR Office maintains a professional relationship with the media, including the reporters of the print and broadcast media. The healthy relationship with the media helps the PR Office to enhance the opportunities for the University to get media coverage of its events in traditional and social media.

The ongoing exercise needs regular meet-ups with the relevant beat reporters, and professionally entertaining them to identify interesting stories and ideas on the campus. The PR Office also maintains mutually beneficial relations with digital media creators for the production of any vlog, podcast, or any other video content based on the KU.

The PR Office also maintains close ties with the state-run media including the PTV, Radio Pakistan, APP, and relevant government agencies, including the Press Information Department and Sindh Information Department, for proper coverage of the high-profile events on the campus featuring the VVIPs and foreign dignitaries.

RESEARCH & INFORMATION

The KU Public Relations Office also helps in publishing corporate information which includes the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor's speeches for graduation ceremonies and special supplements in the newspapers.
