REVIEW STATEMENT

I believe that every human being has been created to serve a specific purpose that is meant for him alone. Life is nothing but an endeavor to discover that purpose. I was born to be an academician, which is evident from thirty two years of my teaching, research and professional experience that has resulted in educating thousands of Pharmacists providing services countrywide as well as worldwide.

My research passion had resulted in the creation of a talented team of Pharmacologist not only serving the parent department, but also enjoying leading positions at various academic institutions throughout Pakistan as well as outside Pakistan.

So far 59 students have been awarded PhD, M. Phil and M. Pharm. degrees under my guidance. I am the editor in chief of Journal of Basic and Applied Sciences since January 2005, and Journal of Pharmacy and Nutrition Sciences since June 2011, both are open access journals.

I am also the editorial board member of several international journals. It is my ultimate desire to motivate younger generation to achieve academic excellence in higher education for national uprightness through individual and institutional growth.
